What Adults Need to Know about Child Grief

The grief experience for children is uniquely different than that experienced by adults. For those who minister to children, the insights and practical tips presented in this program will be equipped to support children who carry the burden of loss or grief. (free) (Offered via Zoom 1 session 2 hours)

Saturday, January 11, 2025, 10:00 Central Time

Leadership Training to minister to those who grieve at any age

From the Sunday school class teacher to pastoral care volunteers and clergy this program offers quick tips of support for “on the spot” ministry to those who grieve. It allows the ministry infrastructure of the church to be of one mind about how to compassionately minister to those who are grieving. (free)

(Offered via Zoom 1 session 3 hours)

Saturday, January 18, 2025, 10:00-1:00 Central Time

Shadowlands Grief Program

This program is designed for survivors of any type of loss or grief, including suicide. It is biblically based and offers insights on recognizing normal reactions, coping skills and is supported with scripture. This
